PARKEVILLE HYDROPATHIC INSTITUTE PARKEVILLE HYDROPATHIC INSTITUTE.

A T a meeting of the Board of Managers of the Parketylle Hydropathic Institute, held fifth month 15th, 1850, Joseph A. Weder, M. D., was unanimously elected Resilient Physician in the place of Dr. Dexter, resigned. Having made various improvements, this institute is now prepared to receive an additional number of pationts; and from Dr. Weder's well-known skill and practical experience in Europe, (acquired under Vincenz Preissuits, the founder of the Hydropathic system,) and for several years past in this country, and particularly in the city of Philindelphia, (where he has had many patients,) the Managers believe the afflicted will find him an able and an attentive physician.

The domestic department being under the charge of a Stoward and Matron, will enable the Doctor to devote to the patients whatever time may be necessary.

General Description of the Parkeville Hydropathic Institute.

The main building is three stories high, standing back from the street about one hundred feet, with a semicircular grass plot in front, and contains thirty to forty rooms. The grounds around the house are testefully laid out with walks and planted with toses, shrubs, &c. On the left of the entrance to these grounds is a cottage containing four rooms, used by male patients as a bathing house, with every convenience for "packing," bathing, &c.; on the right of the entrance, about two hundred feet distant, stands a similar cottage, used by the ladies for similar nursoses.

In the rear of the Institute, at the distance of one hundred feet, are three other cottages, some eighty feet apart. One of these is the laundry, with a hydrant at the door; the other two are occupied by the servants.

The hydrant water is introduced into these cottages well as late the main building, and all the wast-carried off by drains under ground.

SEARS PIOTORICAL FAMILY PUBLICATIONS are decidedly the best books that agents can possibly employ their time in supplying to the people of the United States. They are valuable for reference, and should be possessed by every family in this great republic. There is not a city or town in these United States, not even those of small importance, but contains many citizens to whom these works are indispensable. They are adapted to the literary wants of the Christian, the patriot, the statesman, and the domestic circle, got up in a superior style of art and workmanship; and are not only such books as will sell, but are such as an agent of good principle will feel free to recommend, and willing to see the purchasel again after they have been bought.

BY JOEL AUSTIN.

w Autumn Leaves along my way By wintry winds are strewn, Youth's freshest hopes thus meet decay Ere manhood's restless noon. I've known such hopes, I treasured well, Nor dreamed that Time's chill blast Gave one by one new tints, to tell That they should fall at last!

When every leaf on yonder bough To Summer's gales would sigh, Then I could not, as I can now, Look up and greet the sky; So when the heart's frail, golden dreams Fafc, like this Autumn grove, Then shall it meet consoling beams Of pity from above! WASHINGTON, Oct. 13, 1851.

THE MAINE LIQUOR LAW .- The operations of this law, in some of its bearings, are decidedly against some of the old usages. The city of Portland is now suffering in consequence of the operation of the law, being driven to the necessity of hiring workmen to perform the duties which have heretofore been done by the inmates of the alms house without pay. If the law continues, it is questionable whether alms-house establishments will be worth sustaining. It is said that their patronage is dwindled one half already! This onslaught on pauperism, disease, and crime, is a serious thing to think of !

THE LATE GOV. RUSSWURM .- John B. Russwurm, late Governor of Cape Palmas, who died there lately, was a native of the West Indies, whence he came, when quite young, to reside at North Yarmouth, in the State of Maine. He graduated at Bowdoin College, in 1827,-the only person of color, it is believed, who has ever been educated at that institution. He was much
